

Man's Folly, God's Mercy

All of us can be tempted to ignore God. We think that we can control our lives better without God. Is this true? Or is there a life we can know which far exceeds what we can have when we ignore God?

This will be the subject of the Sunday morning sermon on 19th September at 11am at Spring Road Evangelical Church, Sholing, Southampton.

The livestream of our service is available (see below) but you are very welcome to attend the church in person.
